For individual bookings: a deposit of £600 per passenger per week is payable at the time of booking with the Booking Form attached duly completed and signed. The balance is payable 90 days prior to departure. For charter bookings of an entire Vessel: an initial deposit of 25% of the total fare is payable at the time of booking with the Booking Form duly signed. The balance of the charter fare is payable 120 days prior to departure. If any payment due in relation to your booking is not paid by the appropriate date, we, on behalf of the Operator are entitled to treat your booking as cancelled, and levy the appropriate cancellation charges as set out in Clause 5.

5. CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

Cancellations must be made in writing and are effective only upon notice of receipt by us at our address overleaf. It is your responsibility to check that your notice of cancellation has reached us. The following cancellation fees apply based on the date on which we receive written notice of cancellation. For individual bookings:

a) More than 91 days prior to departure - the full deposit shall be retained.

b) 90 days prior to departure to day of departure, or in the event of failure to embark - 100% of total fare shall be retained.

For charter bookings:

b) More than 180 days prior to departure, charter deposits may be applied to deposits or final payments for individual bookings on the same vessel, subject to a £150 administration fee for each passenger transferring to an individual booking.

c) 180-121 days prior to departure - the full deposit shall be retained.

d) 120 days prior to departure to day of departure, or in the event of failure to embark - 100% of total fare shall be retained. The Operator will not accept any liability for any claims that are not received within 30 days of the termination of the cruise week.

6. ALTERATIONS BY THE PASSENGER

Any date change by any Passenger subsequent to booking must be in the same year and we reserve the right to charge an amendment charge of £75 per passenger. We cannot guarantee that the Operator will be able to accommodate all change requests. No changes permitted less than 90 days prior to departure. Reductions in passenger numbers for charters are only accepted up to 120 days prior to departure. Increases in passenger numbers can be accepted after 120 days prior to departure at our discretion. Transfers to cruises on another Vessel shall be treated as a cancellation and re-booking and cancellation charges will apply. Please note: Some Operators do not allow alterations and therefore full cancellation changes will apply.

7. CREDIT/DEBIT CARDS

By authorizing and making payment by credit or debit card for cruise holidays hereunder and by signing the Booking Form the Passenger expressly agrees to waive his/her rights under any relevant cardholder agreement or applicable law to subsequently cancel or suspend any such card transaction. The Passenger further expressly authorises us to present this documentation to the bank or card issuer as evidence of acceptance by said Passenger that such card transaction is final and not subject to refund, reduction, cancellation or revocation, except as specifically provided in these Terms and Conditions.

8. BROCHURE DETAILS

We aim to ensure that the information provided by Operators is accurately conveyed in brochures, on our website and other promotional literature or material produced and circulated by us. There may be small differences between the actual vessel/other services and its/their description, as the Operators are always seeking to improve services and facilities. Occasionally, problems mean that some facilities or services become unavailable or subject to restriction. Neither we nor the Operators can accept responsibility for any changes or closures to area amenities or attractions mentioned in the brochure/website or advertised elsewhere.

9. SPECIAL REQUESTS

If you have any special requests you must advise us in detail on the booking form. Although we will endeavour to pass any reasonable requests on to the Operator, no guarantees can be given that any request will be met. Confirmation that a special request has been noted or passed on to the Operator, or the inclusion of the special request on your written confirmation or any other documentation, is not confirmation that the request will be met. Failure to meet any special request will not be a breach of contract. Conditional bookings cannot be accepted ie: any booking which is specified to be conditional on the fulfilment of a particular request, unless specifically agreed by us in writing.

10. OUR RESPONSIBILITY

As agent for the Operator we cannot accept any liability for any act or omission on their part or of anyone representing, or employed by them and cannot accept any liability for any shortcomings or defects with or in any Vessel as they are within the sole control of the Operators. Your contract with the Operator is subject to their terms and conditions, which may contain additional limitations to their liability. Our responsibilities are limited to making the booking in accordance with your instructions. We accept no responsibility for any information about the Arrangements that we pass on to you in good faith. If you have any complaints regarding any services we provide, i.e. our booking service (as opposed to any provided by the Operator), you must inform us immediately in writing and in any event within 30 days of the end of any Arrangements booked through us. We regret we cannot accept any liability if we are not so notified. Our maximum liability to you if we are found to be at fault in relation to any service we provide (as opposed to any service provided by the Operator for whom we are not responsible) is limited to twice the cost of the commission we have earned or are due to earn in relation to the booking in question (or the appropriate proportion of this if not everyone on the booking is affected). We do not exclude or limit any liability for death or personal injury which arises as a result of our negligence or that of any of our employees whilst acting in the course of their employment.

11. COMMUNICATING WITH YOU

For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we are the data controller of all personal data provided to us by customers and prospective customers. In order to process your booking we need to collect certain personal details from you, for example names and addresses of party members, credit/debit card or other payment details, special requirements such as those relating to any disability or medical condition which may affect any party member's holiday arrangements and any dietary restrictions which may disclose religious beliefs. If we need any other personal details, we will tell you before we obtain them from you. We need to pass on your personal details to the companies and organisations who need to know them so that your booking and any travel-related services (if any) can be provided (for example the Operator, Service Provider, other suppliers or agents, your credit/debit card company or bank) or for verification of details relating to your booking and any travel-related services booked. Such individuals, companies and organisations may be outside the UK. Data protection legislation in those countries may differ from that in the UK. We also need to process and store your personal details for our own administration, market analyses and operation reviews, and may disclose information to organisations who act as "data processors" on our behalf for this purpose. Please see our privacy policy for full details, which is available on our website www.europeanwaterways.com. We may disclose your details to immigration or law enforcement authorities where we are required to do so.

Except where expressly permitted by the GDPR, we will only deal with the personal details you give to us as set out above unless you agree otherwise. You are generally entitled to ask us (by letter, fax or e-mail) if and how we are processing your personal details. We promise to respond to your request within 30 days of receiving this in writing. In certain limited circumstances we are entitled to refuse your request or request a fee. We may also record or monitor telephone calls to and from us for training purposes.

This document provides a summary of key terms which are used by many of the Operators for whom we act as agent. If the terms of any Operators terms and conditions conflict with this summary, the Operators terms will prevail. In the absence of any such Operators terms and conditions, then the terms laid out in these Terms and Conditions shall apply as Operators terms and conditions. The Passenger understands and agrees that neither we nor the Operator are liable or responsible for the following: a) any personal injury, death, property damage or loss occasioned by theft, vandalism, fire, water, weather conditions, explosion, or any cause whatsoever, whether foreseeable or unforeseeable, or for any loss of whatever kind or nature arising out of or in connection with the acts or omissions, whether foreseeable or unforeseeable

In no circumstances will the Passenger be allowed to embark unless the full cruise fare due has been paid. In the event of alteration or cancellation, the Operator may, but is not obliged to, substitute or provide another vessel of similar standard. Otherwise, the Operator shall refund any fare paid. Waterway routes and vessel alterations and substitutions: All routes are subject to change without notice. Some waterways may be subject to occasional closures due to drought, storms, floods, canal or lock repairs, national holidays or other unforeseen circumstances that result in conditions unsafe for navigation. In the unlikely event of such occurrences, the following conditions shall apply: a) if navigation must be suspended, Passengers will continue to be accommodated on the stationary Vessel and the regular excursions will continue to be made, with cruising to be continued as soon as possible. By way of compensation for any suspension of cruising, additional excursions will be provided by the Vessel's crew, b) we, on behalf of the Operator, reserve the right to reverse a cruise route, cruise another waterway or transfer Passengers to another vessel of similar standard, c) in any decision related to navigation, the judgement of the Vessel's Captain on any action or inaction is considered final.

14. NON-SMOKING POLICY

15. CHILDREN

The minimum age of child accepted on board is 12 years except for Charters and special "Family Departures" (please enquire for further details) for which Children under 12 years are welcome. All children under the age of 18 years accepted onboard qualify for a discount of £200 per child per week on all vessels except La Nouvelle Etoile. Children under the age of 18 are only accepted on Athos as part of a charter booking. Infants under the age of 2 years will be carried on board free of charge. Infants and children cannot be carried as additional Passengers over and above the maximum number of passengers licensed to be carried on board.

16. PETS

No pets are permitted onboard other than on charters and with the prior written agreement of the Operator.

17. PHOTOGRAPHY AND USE OF LIKENESS

During the Cruise, We and/or the Operator may photograph or record video images of Passengers individually or as general participants in activities. If the Passenger informs us and the photographer acting on our behalf of their desire not to be included in such photography, We and/or the Operator shall take reasonable steps to avoid including recognisable images of the Passenger in any resulting photographs or videos. Notwithstanding any such request by the Passenger, We and/or the Operator shall have the right to publish, in any medium, and for any valid business purpose, without obligation to compensate Passenger for such usage, an image taken in good faith that may include images of the Passenger.

18. DISABILITY AND HEALTH

Passengers who are disabled, or are not in good general health, are required to advise our reservations staff of the nature of their disability at the time of booking as some Vessels and/or itineraries may be unsuitable. If we or the Operator reasonably feel unable to properly accommodate the particular needs of the person concerned we reserve the right to decline or cancel the reservation. Any Passenger who is suffering from any infectious disease immediately prior to departure must declare it to us and the Operator before joining the cruise.

19. COMPENSATION

If the Operator cancels a cruise and/or other Arrangement for any reasons (other than force majeure or default by the Passenger), or makes a material alteration to the cruise and/or Arrangement for reasons other than force majeure, after the date when payment of the balance of the price becomes due, in addition to a full refund, compensation will be payable on the following scale per person: 56 or more days prior to departure – Nil; 55-42 days – £20; 41-28 days – £60; 27-14 days – £100; less than 14 days – £150.

20. COMPLAINTS

Every effort has been made to ensure that you have an enjoyable and memorable cruise. If, however, you have any cause for complaint then we, together with the Operator are anxious that remedial action is taken as soon as possible. It is essential that you contact us immediately if any problem arises so that it can be speedily resolved whilst you are still on board. It is often extremely difficult (and sometimes impossible) to resolve difficulties properly unless we are promptly notified. If, after this, you feel that the problem has not been resolved to your satisfaction, then the party leader must, within 30 days of returning from your cruise, put your complaint in writing to us. This procedure is designed to ensure the speediest possible investigation and rectification of complaints. Please help us and the Operator to help you by following this procedure. If you fail to do so, this may affect your entitlement to claim compensation where this would or may otherwise have been appropriate. As an agent for the Operator, we cannot accept any liability other than as defined in Clause 10, and any assistance provided in resolving a complaint in relation to your booking is provided on a goodwill basis and in our capacity as agent only.

21. UNDERTAKINGS OF THE PASSENGER

a) That (subject to any declaration under Clause 18 above) he/ she is in good general health. He / she further agrees, if so required by Us or the Operator prior to departure, to complete a Health Questionnaire and to submit to any reasonable medical checks. Failure to comply with this requirement or the consequent disclosure of any medical condition which might endanger the health of other Passengers or the crew may result in boarding being refused.

22. PASSPORTS AND VISAS

It is the Passenger's responsibility to ensure that they possess all relevant travel documents prior to departure. If for any reason the passenger is unable to travel due to incomplete travel documentation after booking and confirmation of cruise, the passenger will be subject to cancellation policy as stated in these terms and conditions. Passengers should check passport and visa requirements with the relevant Embassies or Consulates well in advance of travel.

23. BEHAVIOUR

The Operators (or we, on behalf of the Operator) reserve the right within their reasonable discretion to terminate your cruise, without notice, if you or your party's conduct or behaviour is disruptive in any way and/ or affects the enjoyment of other passengers.
